

PROGRAM

OREGON LIBRARY ASSOCIATION

MID-WINTER CONFERENCE

January 24, 1942

Salem, Oregon

Headquarters: Salem Public Library.

10:15 Morning session. Music Hall auditorium, Willamette University

Singing of National Anthem. Melvin H. Geist, Dean of Music, Willamette University, directing.

Business Meeting

Panel discussion. Topic: A suitable program of activities for the O.L.A. Miss Katherine Anderson, Miss Mabel Doty, Miss Marcia Hill, Mrs. Evelyn Jacobs, Mrs. Wilma B. Koehler, Miss J. Elizabeth Olson, Hugh Morrow, Chairman.

"Changing reading habits and library statistics", Eleanor Touhey, Library Association of Portland.

12:15 Luncheon at the Capitol Coffee Shop.

Guests: The Honorable Charles A. Sprague, Governor of Oregon; Dr. Carl S. Knopf, President of Willamette University; Mr. Rex Putnam, State Superintendent of Public Instruction; Mr. O. I. Paulson, State Director of Vocational Training for Defense Workers.

1:15 Tours: The Capitol building; Willamette University Library; and Salem Public Library.

2:00 Afternoon session. Music Hall Auditorium, Willamette University.

Report of American Library Association mid-winter conference at Chicago, Miss Nell A. Unger, Librarian Library Association of Portland.

"Progress of Victory Book Campaign", Miss Eleanor S. Stephens, Librarian, Oregon State Library.

"Vocational training for national defense needs the help of librarians", O. I. Paulson.

3:45 Visit to Oregon State Library. Tea will be served by the Staff.