

OREGON LIBRARY ASSOCIATION OFFICERS

President

Mirpah G. Blair, Oregon State Library, Salem

Vice-President

Lucia Haley, Oregon State College Library, Corvallis

Secretary

Evelyn Krueger, Corvallis Public Library, Corvallis

Treasurer

Clarice Krieg, University of Oregon Library, Eugene

The above officers and the following constitute the

Executive Board

Mrs. H.B. Latham, Silverton

Mrs. Wilma Wright, Parrish Jr. High School, Salem

Mr. Hugh Morrow, on leave from the Public Library, Salem

Oregon Library Association

May 6, 1944

Oregon State Capitol

Room 321

Salem, Oregon

OREGON LIBRARY ASSOCIATION PROGRAM
May 6, 1944

MORNING SESSION
Room 321, State Capitol

10:00 Business Meeting

11:00 Some Recent Books for Young People

Miss Agnes Shields, School Library
Specialist, Oregon State Library

Books are on display in the Model School
Library, Room 101 of the State Library
Building, open daily, 8:30 a.m. to 5:00 p.m.

American Library Association publications are displayed in Room 202, State Library Building.

12:00 Luncheon, Marion Hotel
200 South Commercial Street

Address: The Author in War Time

Mrs. Helen Norcross Hedrick, Medford, author of The Blood Remembers, and numerous short stories.

AFTERNOON SESSION
Room 321, State Capitol

2:00 The Responsibility of Selective Service to the Men Released from the Armed Forces.

George E. Sandy, Lt. Col., Corps of Engineers. Chief, Veterans Personal
Division, Selective Service

2:30 Oregon's Responsibility for Vocational Training and Vocational Rehabilitation to Released War Workers and Returned Servicemen and Women.

Mr. O.I. Paulson, State Director, Division of Vocational Education, State Board of Education

3:00 Report on Experimental Institute on Demobilization and Readjustment, Chicago,
Illinois, March 4-5, 1944.

Mrs. Gretchen Knief Schenk, Librarian,
Washington State Library, Olympia

3:20 Demobilization and the Library: Oregon's Part

Miss Eleanor Stephens, Librarian
Oregon State Library, Salem

3:40 Report of Nominating Committee

Installation of New Officers

Adjournment