

OREGON LIBRARY ASSOCIATION OFFICERS

President

Phil Blodgett, Clatsop County Library, Astoria

Vice-President

Mary Phillips, Library Association of Portland

Secretary

Pauline Calentine, Reed College, Portland

Treasurer

Marjorie Chester, Salem Public School Libraries, Salem

A.L.A. Councilor

Katherine Anderson, Library Association of Portland

N.L.A. Representative

Dessa Hofstetter, Oregon College of Education, Monmouth

Trustee Member

Fred E. Fleet, Klamath Co. Library Board, Klamath Falls

-0-0-0-

There is no registration fee for the O.L.A. meeting.

The Oregon Library Association is attempting to raise an Oregon Library Development Fund. Will you not give one half of a day's pay toward this project?

OREGON LIBRARY ASSOCIATION

PROGRAM FOR MAY 22, 1948

PORTLAND, OREGON

SIXTH ANNUAL CONFERENCE

*MORNING SESSIONS

- 9:45 LET'S GET ACQUAINTED
Registration, Sale of luncheon and dinner tickets
- 10:00 LET'S THINK
Business Meeting: Minutes, Committee reports, etc.
Phil Blodgett, President, in the chair
- 11:00 Current Developments in the Library World:
Trends Toward Larger Units of Service
Public Library Demonstrations, to date
Maryan Reynolds, Washington State Library
Planning at national, state and local levels
Ivy Grover, Eleanor Brown, Deschutes Co., and Eleanor Stephens, Oregon State Library
- 11:40 (LET'S STRETCH)
- 11:50 Experimenting with an audio-visual program
The University of Oregon's audio-visual service, Paper prepared by R.C. Swank Don L. Hunter, U. of Oregon Library
Question and answer period, with audience participation
Mrs. Elizabeth Hill,
Library Association of Portland
Mrs. William Bequette (Neva LeBlond), Umatilla County Library
- 1:00 LET'S EAT
p.m. Buffet luncheon costing 75¢ will be served in the Reed College Cafeteria.

*The Reed College Campus is reached via the Eastmoreland bus, which may be taken at Fifth Avenue and Taylor.
Get off at 32nd Avenue and Woodstock.

AFTERNOON and EVENING SESSIONS

- 2:00 LET'S PLAY
There will be no formal program in the afternoon, but Reed College Library will have open house for those who do not have other plans.
- The Library Association of Portland will show films from 3-4 P.M. This Library should be contacted in advance by persons who would like to reserve rooms for committee meetings there.
- For out-of-town visitors who do not wish to shop or visit bookstores, it may be of interest to do some local sightseeing in this free time.
- 6:45 LET'S DINE
Informal dinner to be held at Multnomah Hotel, 319 S.W. Pine. Cost, $2.50
Research problems of the regional author
Dorothy Johansen,
Professor of History, Reed College
"We called it culture"
Victoria and Robert Ormond Case,
Oregon authors